The film stars Sivakarthiskeyan, Ponvannan, Radhika and Jaishankar. The film, upon release, was declared a super hit. It was a blockbuster at the box office. The film won the National Film Award for Best Feature Film in Tamil, and a Tamil Nadu State Film Award for Best Music Director. At the 59th National Film Awards, the film was awarded the 2004 National Film Award for Best Feature Film in Tamil . In the original, the British screenwriter of the film said that it was "a pretty typical English social comedy about a group of young people going on holiday in Paris and the girl on holiday ends up in a compromising position". He said that the film's title was inspired by John Cleese's line in the film Monty Python and the Holy Grail about the events of the previous night. In a separate interview, he said that the script started out as a script he wrote in early 1999 and that he was not given the script until it was filming. In an interview with The Hindu in 2006, he said that he told Kannada director Venkat Prabhu that it was based on P. L. Narayana's Sandhya and that it was a "total spoof". He added that Venkat Prabhu responded, "But it's written by me", and that he replied, "So what, I can take it, can't I?" According to the screenwriter, "Kannada writers are more intelligent, because they have got the hang of language". Pilichiri. 2000 • 2hr 41min • Romance Drama. Dramatic • Passionate.
