This week your child is learning the words eager, huge, pile, and storyteller. The words come from the book Tomas and the Library. Word parts of the vocabulary that can be recognized in the lyrics: "borrow, check out, huge, storyteller, huge, eager" Musical Score of "Tomas and the Library Lady" Let your toddler explore the different sounds in "Tomas and the Library Lady" song. A: I'm guessing that the correct spelling for the word "librarian" is Librarian and that the correct spelling for the word "borrow" is borrow. The word that you want to check out is "borrow". To check out a book, you borrow it and return it, if it is done correctly, the book is available to read again when you return it. I suggest reading the following Wikipedia article to get a better understanding of how the words are spelled and how they are used. Finally, the song that I posted seems to indicate that the word "huge" is spelled huge. (In the song lyrics) The Book was borrowed / The Book was borrowed (Again, the word borrow was used twice in the song) The Book was borrowed / The Book was borrowed ...the Book is back (or the Book is back) (Note that the actual phrase that was sung was the Book is back (or the Book is back) twice) I believe that the lyrics are very literal and mean exactly what they say, it is "the book is back". I also believe that it is appropriate to learn about what the words actually mean because I believe that is a more effective method of learning than just looking for rhyming words or phrases. 'Man of Steel' voice actor Kevin Costner relives his role as Superman OK, so you already know about 'Man of Steel' because we're excited about it, but you don't know everything.
